

How to Run Basic Linux File Commands

This Linux File commands training teaches junior Linux admins essential file commands for navigating Linux systems. Learn to execute basic commands, build foundational Linux skills, and practice in real-world scenarios. Ideal for IT teams and admins, this course serves as an onboarding tool, a Linux reference resource, or can be included in a broader Linux training plan.

CBT Nuggets course material →

WEEK 1

File Management Basics

154 min.

Listing and Changing Directories	19
Copying Files	12
Moving Files	9
Changing Timestamps & Querying File Types	7

File and Directory Management

Overview	1
Creating Directories	6
Removing Files and Directories	6
Globbering	11
Finding	11
Creating Archives with Tar	8
Compression	4
Copying Files with dd	7

Regular Expressions and File Editing

Overview	1
Pattern Matching with grep	21
egrep, fgrep and rgrep	7
Getting Started with Vim	8
Exploring Vim	14

WEEK 2

1 min.